

BUSINESS UPDATE

We wanted to share a significant update about a key member of our team. After many dedicated years of service, Andrew Mayes will be entering semi-retirement. While this marks a new chapter for him, we're pleased to inform you that Andrew will remain actively involved with our team and projects.

His rich experience and guidance will continue to benefit us, ensuring that the standards and quality you've come to expect remain uncompromised.

We understand the significance of trust and expertise when it comes to your elevator needs. We're proud to share that ECD has been a steadfast presence in the lift industry for over 25 years. Our dedicated team, with a combined experience nearing a century, stands as a testament to our commitment and expertise.

We look forward to sharing with you new and exciting products in 2024 and thank you for your continued trust and partnership.
